Call it Loretta Young meets Carol Burnett and Whoopi Goldberg. LATE NITE CATECHISM is part catechism class, part stand-up routine. Written by Vicki Quade & Maripat Donovan, it's an interactive comedy, one of the longest-running shows in Chicago and U.S. theater history.

LATE NITE CATECHISM is coming for one performance only to St. Peter the Apostle, in Itasca, on Sunday, September 27, 2026.

The New York Times calls it, "hilarious, well-written and inspired." Jeffrey Lyons from TV's Sneak Previews calls Late Nite Catechism "something to savor and enjoy… one of the most intimate, rewarding shows in town."

Audience members, are part of Sister's class. She'll take you back to the days of the Latin Mass, meatless Fridays, and remind you about that good old ruler across the knuckles!

LATE NITE CATECHISM is an uproariously funny play. Throughout the course of the play, Sister rewards audience members for correct answers with glow-in-the-dark rosaries and other nifty prizes. Naughty students may well find themselves on stage sitting in a corner reflecting on their actions. The play is a sharp satire, but never mean. It's simply an afternoon of fun and laughter.
