If you are hospitalized...

If you or a member of your family are admitted to the hospital, please contact the Parish Center to let us know. Due to new federal regulations, most hospitals will not contact parishes unless you specifically request it. We want to visit our parishioners in the hospital, but we are often unaware of their hospitalization.

Friday Communion Calls

Fr. Slawek makes communion calls every Friday for those unable to attend Sunday mass due to illness or bad health.

Please call Fr. Slawek at 630-773-1272 (ext. 208) to make arrangements.

If it is too difficult for you to walk to the front of the church to receive Communion, please know that at each Mass an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion comes to the back of the church to distribute Communion. If you would like to have the Extraordinary Minister give you communion in the back of church, please let an usher know before Mass begins. At Communion time, when you see the Extraordinary Minister come to the back, please raise your hand so that they can see you and give you Holy Communion.

Traveling?

While traveling, parishioners may call 1-410-676-6000 or log onto www.masstimes.org for the location and schedule of Masses throughout the U.S.

Congratulations to all of our children who made their First Holy Communion on Saturday. May you become more like Jesus as you receive Him every Sunday in the Eucharist. Thank you to all of those who prepared our children for the reception of the "Sacrament of sacraments".

We are entering the time of year when a lot of Confirmations, First Holy Communion, and weddings take place. We, as Catholics, have the great honor and privilege to be able to receive Our Lord, Jesus, in the Holy Eucharist at mass at these special occasions of our lives. We also have to remember that the participation in these special masses does not fulfill the obligation of attending Holy Mass on Sunday and receiving Holy Communion worthily.

Often due to misinformation or improper catechesis, some Catholics do not believe it is necessary to fulfill the Sunday obligation anymore. It is a grave sin to miss mass on Sunday unless there is a very good reason, such as illness, taking care of the sick, etc. Going on vacation does not constitute a good reason to miss Sunday mass unless it is absolutely impossible to go to mass due to there being no mass available to attend. Not going to mass on Sunday because you went to a wedding on Saturday leaving you too tired to go is another example of an invalid reason to miss mass.

If a Sunday mass has been missed due to our own fault, we cannot receive Holy Communion again without making a confession. To receive holy communion unworthily is adding another grave sin upon the one from not keeping the Sunday obligation. While some people may think it is alright to receive holy communion anytime, doing so while in a state of mortal sin is sacrilegious, because the soul is no longer in a state of grace. St. Paul tells us, "Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup" (1 Cor. 11:27-28).

Because of our weakness due to our human nature, Jesus instituted for us the sacrament of reconciliation to restore our relationship with Him and one another. He has given us the Eucharist to strengthen us during our journey during our earthly life. As Jesus tells us in John 6:53-54, "truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day."

I want to encourage all of you to receive the sacrament of reconciliation as much as needed so you are always in a state of grace. Jesus teaches us, we never know the day or time he will call us home. Our souls must always be ready.

Especially in this year of the Eucharist in the Joliet Diocese, I encourage you to make an effort to deepen your devotion to the Holy Eucharist which is an extraordinary gift we receive from Our Savior, Jesus Christ.

God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Slawek

What a Powerful Ending to a Great year of Religious Education!

Two weeks before all children went home with the basic questions taught at their grade level to study with their family or friends. And then the day came with Andrzej, our music director, at the keyboard making the sounds of game show and Sebastian, our seminarian calling out the names of contestants.

Mrs. Kathy Frank organized a game made just for the day where children could call a friend from the assembly, ask one of the expert catechists or poll the entire group present before they answered each question.

At the end of the game, Sebastian asked who could sing the Opening Song at the microphone. Dylan Williams was more than happy to give it a try and everyone applauded.

As catechists left the church, the comments were in unison that they want all the classes next year to be as much fun and have the children learn so much about our faith. Thanks to all that helped make it a special day for all of us!

Congratulations to the Religious Education Students Recognized for Perfect Attendance
