FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners:

In anticipation of Thanksgiving Day this week, I want to share how thankful I am for all of you and for the gift of being chosen as your pastor. I am so grateful to be hear.

St. Peter the Apostle is very blessed with wonderful faithful people who give generously of their time, talent and treasure. It is heartwarming to see God's good works come to light in the many existing ministries and organizations, as well as the exciting new ministries that are beginning to form.

I wish you all a very blessed Thanksgiving celebration with your family and friends. May your travels be safe and your tables be full of good food and cherished memories.

I invite you to begin your Thanksgiving Day with 9:00 am Mass on Thursday. It is a wonderful opportunity to gather with your parish family to offer our thanks to God for all the blessings he has given our parish community. Please also consider blessing others by bringing non-perishable food items or making a monetary donation for the Itasca Food Pantry. Please drop off donations at the Itasca Food Pantry van prior to Mass. All of the donations will then be blessed after mass before being delivered to the food pantry.

Transitional Housing Ministry

For 28 years St Peter's has partnered with Bridge Communities to provide an apartment and mentoring to a family with children that would otherwise be homeless. The current family has been in the program just under a year, has paid off a large amount of debt, and is being prepared to find their own apartment.

St. Peter the Apostle Parish currently pays $1,025 per month to as part of our partnership with Bridge Communities to provide the apartment for the family. The Transitional Housing Ministry is again looking for donations specifically to offset this cost, allowing for the donations current made to the Parish Poor Fund to remain available for other outreach causes.

More information about what Bridge does can be found at BridgeCommunities.org or by contacting parishioner Adam Stephan at adam.stephan@gmail.com or or 847-715-8326..

Please contact Adam if you are able to donate to this worthy cause or if you'd like to become involved in our Transitional Housing Ministry.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

Light-up someone's holiday

St. Peter's is again providing the Christmas Giving Tree to help the less fortunate fulfill some holidays wishes.

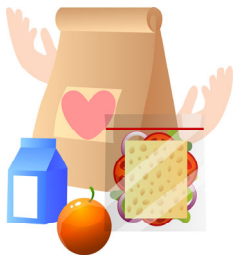

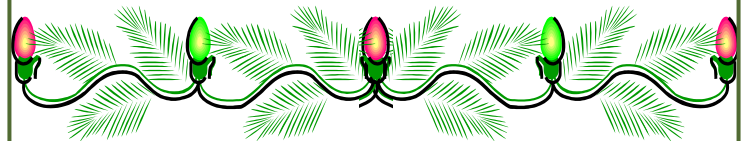

Here is how it works:

Beginning THIS weekend, the giving tree is up and available for parishioners to select a "tag" with information about a gift for a needy person. Parishioners are asked to purchase a new gift as suggested on the "tag" (please no used items); wrap the gift and affix the "tag" securely to the package; and, return to the boxes in the back of church by Friday, December 8.

Please note that each gift is designated for a specific individual and if you take an "tag" and do not return a gift, someone will be disappointed on Christmas.

If you are struggling with finances this holiday season or know of someone who is, please contact Fr. Tuan to make arrangements to participate in the Giving Tree program.

LUNCHES FOR THE HOMELESS through Missionaries of Charity

St. Peter the Apostle will again be working with the Missionaries of Charity to provide 75 lunches for homeless individuals in Chicago. Lunches will be provided on the fourth Tuesday of each month, beginning in November and will run through Spring of next year.

The Missionaries of Charity is a Catholic religious congregation established in 1950 by Saint Teresa of Calcutta.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

- >> Sign up to bring a lunch item and drop your item off at the Parish Center on the designated date. Sign up sheets are on the table outside of Margaret Woods Hall.
- >> Volunteer to make lunches in Margaret Woods Hall on the Monday evening before the fourth Tuesday.
- >> Volunteer to drive lunches to the Missionaries of Charity on the fourth Tuesday of a month.

If you have any questions or want additional information, please contact Nancy Magnus at 630-606-5197 or Toni Pietrowski at 630-773-1272, ext. 216.

Great news! Children's Choir will begin rehearsals the week after Thanksgiving, immediately following Religious Education on Wednesdays and Saturdays. If you have children in third, fourth or fifth grade, please plan to pick them up 30 minutes after Religious Education ends. We are anticipating a great turnout for the Family Christmas Eve Nativity and Family Mass, and won't it be wonderful to have children lead the singing?

A big Thank You to everyone who has answered the call to adult choir and the music ministry over these past six weeks. I am honored to work with you!

We do still have empty chairs up in the choir loft, and would love to see them filled with new singers. As we look toward Advent and Christmas, please, won't you come sing with us? !

Joyfully,

Roberta Moroz

Dear Fr. Tuan and Parishioners of St. Peter the Apostle,

In this time of the year when we gather together as a family to celebrate Thanksgiving, I would like to express my deep gratitude for your hospitality and especially your generosity in supporting the mission in Kenya, Africa. I am very grateful for Fr. Tuan's willingness to invite me to celebrate Masses at St. Peter's parish and giving me the opportunity to share stories of my mission work in Kenya with you all.

Working in Kenya has given me a different perspective of things I was taking for granted. For example, small things that may usually frustrate me, I now see as non-issues in the scheme of life. When I encounter people who every day struggle for survival, for their next meal or for clean water, our problems cannot compare.

So I encourage you, at this time of year and always, to be thankful to God, and appreciate the gifts He has given you and your families. I kindly remind you to please look at others with compassion and a gentle heart, and serve God by serving others with love.

May God bless you all, and I wish you and your families a happy Thanksgiving and a peaceful holy holiday season.

REFLECTION - GOSPEL READING

Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus tells the parable of the talents, in which he teaches about the importance of using the gifts that God has given to us in service to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This week's Gospel speaks of how Jesus' disciples are to conduct themselves as they await the Kingdom of Heaven. In the preceding passages and in last week's Gospel, Jesus taught that there is no way to predict the coming of the Kingdom of Heaven. His disciples must, therefore, remain vigilant and ready to receive the Son of Man at any time.

Jesus' parable talks about Christian discipleship using economic metaphors. Before he leaves on a journey, the master entrusts to his servants a different number of talents, giving to each according to their abilities. A talent is a coin of great value. Upon the master's return, he finds that the first and second servants have doubled their money, and both are rewarded. The third servant, however, has only preserved what was given to him because he was afraid to lose the money. He has risked nothing; he did not even deposit the money in a bank to earn interest. This servant is punished by the master, and his talent is given to the one who brought the greatest return.

Read in light of last week's parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids, this parable teaches that God's judgment will be based on the service we render to God and to one another in accordance with the gifts that God has given to us. Our gifts, or talents, are given to us for the service of others. If we fail to use these gifts, God's judgment on us will be severe. On the other hand, if we make use of these gifts in service to the Kingdom of Heaven, we will be rewarded and entrusted with even more responsibilities.

This Gospel reminds us that Christian spirituality is not passive or inactive. Our life of prayer helps us to discern the gifts that have been given to us by God. This prayer and discernment ought to lead us to use our gifts in the service of God and our neighbor. God's grace allows us to share in the work of serving the Kingdom of Heaven.
