PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners:

Last weekend's bulletin included the Financial Report for the year ending June 2026, as well as a projected schedule for maintenance/future projects. From the bottom of my heart...

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

As a pastor, it is a blessing to be in a parish where parishioners support the financial needs of the parish. I am blessed to be your pastor here and to be with people who love God and their church and are committed to their faith. Again, thank you!

Last weekend the Deacons preached about Conversion and Confession, two of the main focal points of the pastoral letter, MAKE. This week we will focus on Communion and Commission; and next week will be prayer – the center of everything we do as disciples of Christ.

Religious Education has resumed, and I am excited about the new year and watching the children learn and grow in their faith. Thank you to Toni Pietrowski, Kathy Frank, and all the catechists for doing a great job. This year we have over 240 children enrolled in the program. Also, as the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) program begins this month, we anticipate welcoming 20 people into the Catholic Faith at the Easter Vigil. Please pray for them as they begin their spiritual journey.

Lastly, don't forget to revisit your own Catechesis with Late Nite Catechism this Sunday afternoon at 3:00 pm. Come out for a fun-filled afternoon filled with laughter and nostalgia, while supporting the Young Adult Community.

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

Pastor, St. Peter the Apostle Parish

MAKE

A Pastoral Letter for the People of the Diocese of Joliet

MAKE is a call to action — rooted in Catechesis, Evangelization, and Faith into action — to follow Jesus' Great Commission: Go and MAKE disciples.

It's time to live our faith boldly. Together, let's make disciples — starting now!

This week's spotlight on MAKE: Communion and Commission

After conversion and confession, communion continues the transformative process of disciple-making. "Communion," refers to nothing less than the Eucharist, Jesus' gift of Himself — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity — to the life of the Church. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the whole Christian life, making disciples through personal transformation. Jesus comes to us in the Eucharist because this is His way of wanting to be in communion with you.

Every Eucharistic celebration concludes with a sending. In fact, the word Mass derives its meaning from the Latin word missa, meaning "dismissal." The liturgy does not simply come to an end. Those assembled are sent forth (and "Commissioned") to bring the fruits of the Eucharist to the world: "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life!" This sending at the end of Mass is, for each of us, our personal participation in the disciple-making mission of the Church.

Visit www.make.diojoliet.org to learn more about MAKE and to find additional Resources for Personal Growth for Conversion and Confession.

All are welcome to stop by Margaret Wood's Parish Hall weekly following Sunday morning masses. Grab a doughnut or bagel, and enjoy some fellowship!

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING MINISTRY

St. Peter’s Transitional Housing Program has exciting news. Our family is successfully graduating out of the program! During her time in the program, the mom completed her CNA, found a higher paying job, improved her credit score, paid off all of her non-student loan debt, and built savings for future independence.

The family will be moving into Bridge’s Graduate program. This allows them to stay in their current apartment with reduced rent until the apartment is needed by Bridge. Staying in the same school and community is a great benefit to them.

Thank you to everyone at St Peter’s that has supported the Transitional Housing Program through mentoring, donating, and praying.

Bridge Communities will begin their search for a new family for our program. We have returning mentors, but we will be in need of more help.

If you’re interested in learning more about mentoring please contact Adam Stephan by email at adam.stephan@gmail.com or by phone at 847-715-8326.

Living Water

Season of Creation 2026

Immersion in Living Water
EZEKIEL 47:9, 12

“Swarms of living creatures will live wherever the river flows. There will be large numbers of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so where the river flows everything will live. [...] Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing.”
Ezekiel 47:9,12

This year’s theme, “Living Water”, explores Ezekiel 47:9 and 12 as a powerful biblical vision of hope and ecological healing. Set amid exile and loss, the image of living water flowing from God’s sanctuary reveals divine healing that renews land, water, biodiversity, and human responsibility towards the whole creation.

The symbol pictures water flowing from the Temple of God – at first a tiny stream which grows deeper, and as it does so it brings life to dead areas and restores fertility to damaged or barren ecosystems. Through living water comes healing, but to receive new life we too must step into the water and also become part of God’s river of life, taking part in the healing of creation.

In many Christian traditions, Ezekiel 47 has been read primarily as a future eschatological promise – a depiction of the messianic age when God dwells fully with his people and renews all things. The prophet’s vision is, however, also for healing now, as well as anticipating a broader cosmic restoration. The River of Life represents a renewal that extends beyond human salvation to include the healing of creation itself. The trees whose leaves are “for healing” suggest not only physical sustenance but holistic flourishing, encompassing both humanity and creation. Ezekiel 47:1–12 contains a distinct environmental message that speaks of global healing, renewal and transformation of life, of the interdependence between humanity and the natural world, and of hope through action in caring for the earth, our common home.

As disciples, we are all called to be stewards of this world that God has made for us. We are called to live lightly, use sparingly and preserve and protect our environment for ourselves and future generations. If each week we pick one new change in how we live our lives, we can, over the course of a single year, transform our home, our yard, our neighborhood and our community. Please take a few moments to read the MAKE document from our former bishop, Archbishop Hicks, and find one or two simple actions you can take to make to be better disciples of Christ, and good and faithful stewards of His planet.

The Support of Your Business is Greatly Appreciated

Tim Brinckerhoff from LPi, our bulletin printer, is currently securing new ads for our parish bulletin. It is the support of the business community that helps our church thrive. Please consider purchasing a print and/or digital ad as your participation makes our bulletin successful, and you attract customers!

Church bulletin advertising is a cost-effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for your local community; in turn, parishioners will support you!

Digital advertising allows your business to be front and center to anyone who visits a church profile page on ParishesOnline.com — that's approximately 500,000 page views per month!
