From the Administrator...
IN VERITATE ET IN CARITATE

It is with great joy that I welcome Father Tuan Nguyen to the community and parish of Saint Peter the Apostle Church. I know that you share this joy and will also welcome him to his new position as our shepherd. Through the coming weeks, there will be ample opportunities for us all to greet and meet him and help him feel at home.

It has been a great honor for me to have been allowed to serve you and our community as the administrator for the past ten months. Through challenges great and small, I felt the prayers and support you have offered to sustain me and guide me through my days. In truth, you have made the position of administrator an easy one for me to take on because we are a close-knit, loving community.

The sudden loss of Father Robert Noesen was a difficult time to work through, but we came together as a parish and were able to move forward. With the support of over a dozen priests, we were able to continue to celebrate our regular schedule of masses. I became far more aware of the importance of praying for vocations and supporting our priests --- from those currently in formation through to, and including, our retired priests. Promoting vocations to the priesthood and to religious life has become a regular part of my prayer life. I hope that you will make it a regular part of yours.

As we transition to our "new normal" with Pastor Tuan, I am confident that you will provide him with the same support, friendship and love that I have always felt here at Saint Peter's. This is the only parish I have ever known, and so I assumed that most parishes are like ours. But I have learned that we are a wonderful, special community. Our regular attendance at weekday mass is usually at least sixty people. And most of those of us who attend know one another by name — a happy benefit of the old COVID restrictions when we had to register for every mass.

We have endured a global pandemic, we have persevered through the loss of our pastor, we have progressed with (or in spite of) an acting administrator. Our parish community is strong. More and more people are joining us for worship on Sundays. And through your continuing generosity, we are financially stable.

In the true spirit of John 3:30-35, I encourage all of you to welcome Father Tuan to Saint Peter's and support him as he settles into his new position.

In Truth and in Love,

Deacon Fred Maier

Acting Administrator, St. Peter the Apostle Parish

Dear Parishioners,

I am so happy to be here as your Pastor. I have heard so many wonderful things about St. Peter, our Parish and you. One of the beautiful things I heard is that you speak the same language that God speaks, the language of love. I want to thank you for speaking that language of love. Throughout my life as a priest, I try to speak the same language at whatever parish God sends me to. Our God is an awesome God, He loves all of us no matter who we are, what we are, or where we are in our lives; and God loves us.

A little bit about myself, I come from a family of 9 children. My dad died in 1968, and my mom died in 1972. My three older brothers passed away in the last 11 years. In 1976 my sister, my brother-in-law, and I escaped from Vietnam by a fishing boat. After 10 days and nights at sea, we landed in Malaysia and spent 10 months in a refugee camp. As I reflect upon the escape on the ocean, I saw God's hands guiding us and keeping us safe until we reached land. God gives me life, and so I want to give my life back to God.

In 1977, after 10 months in the refugee camp, we arrived in Illinois. I spent 1 year at St. Charles Borromeo in Joliet, 4 years in College Seminary at St. Meinrad in Indiana, and 4 years at St. Mary of the Lake in Mundelein. I was ordained on June 7, 1986, at the Cathedral of St. Raymond Nonnatus.

After ordination, I spent 6 years at St. Mary in Downers Grove, 4 years at St. Francis of Assisi in Bolingbrook, 16 years at St. Alexander in Villa Park, and most recently 11 years at St. Mary's in Minooka. And, now I am here with you as your Pastor at St. Peter the Apostle.

I ask you to pray for me that I will be a good shepherd to you, that I will bring Christ and his love to you. God is an awesome God. He is all loving so let us then celebrate his love and share his love with others.

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

You never know who might "rise" from the crowd...

St. Peter's Chosen watchers were blessed with a special guest at a recent watch party — Demetrios Troy, the actor who plays Lazarus in The Chosen, surprised the group with a special appearance. Demetrios came that evening with his aunt who attends St. Peter's, and he maintained his anonymity until after the show. To say it was a surprise to all in attendance is a serious understatement. Everyone was very excited to meet him.

Demetrios and his family live in Glenview. He is here doing some voice over work for Relevant Radio and will shortly be returning to do more filming for The Chosen - Season 4.

Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

REFLECTION - GOSPEL READING:

Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus prays in thanks to God, who has revealed himself to the lowly.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did.

Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.
