PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear parishioners:

June 7, 1986, was one of the most beautiful and blessed days of my life – the day I was ordained to the priesthood together with 4 other priests by Bishop Joseph Imesch. This weekend I am celebrating the 39th anniversary of my Ordination. Everyday I thank God for the gift of my priesthood. For the 39 years of my life as a priest, God has blessed me with wonderful people whom I have been called to serve in different parishes. One of my goals as a priest is to tell people how much God loves them, no matter who or what they are, or where they are in their lives. Among the parishes I've been at, I see people who care for one another, love their faith and their church, and are a truly faith-filled community; they are witnesses for me of God's love. St. Peter the Apostle stands out as such a parish, and I thank you for being a faith-filled, loving community. I am very blessed to be your pastor.

Don't forget to mark your calendar for upcoming summer parish activities...

- Knights of Columbus Parish Blood Drive – this weekend on Sunday (8:00 am-2:00 pm)
- Women's Club – Thursday, June 12 (6:30 pm)

- Corpus Christi Procession – Sunday, June 22 (following 11:30 am Mass)
- Parish Picnic – Sunday, June 29 (following 11:30 am Mass) – be sure to sign up!

Love and Prayers,

Habemus Papam: With God, All Things Are Possible

It was a moment I will never forget!

On May 9, 2025, I was traveling from Omaha back to the Diocese of Joliet after attending the installation of my classmate and friend as the new Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Omaha. I was glued to my phone, watching as white smoke billowed from the chimney at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

As I stood in line for TSA security at the Omaha airport, a woman in front of me asked, "Bishop, do you think we might get an American pope this time?" I quickly responded, "No, that's impossible."

I then placed my carry-on and phone on the conveyor belt, went through the metal detector, put my belt back on, and reclaimed my phone—only to see the news that the impossible had just happened. We had a new pope, born and raised in the USA... Pope Leo XIV! That moment solidified for me that the Holy Spirit is still in charge of our Church. Indeed, with God, all things are possible (Matthew 19:26).

My flight home was abuzz with joy and curiosity about this new pope as passengers all around me asked, "Do you know him?" The short answer is: "Yes, I know him." While I am twelve years younger than he is, we actually grew up in the same neighborhood in the South Suburbs of Chicago. He lived in Dolton, and I was raised next door in South Holland—and we even share a favorite pizza place.

I had the privilege of meeting Pope Leo XIV when he was still Cardinal Robert Prevost. On August 7, 2024, he came to our diocese to speak at St. Jude Parish in New Lenox. I attended his lecture, which focused on the Catholic Church and Pope Francis. What struck me most was the clarity with which he spoke—he was both deeply intelligent and remarkably pastoral. His insights were not hidden behind academic jargon. Instead, they were spoken plainly and with heart, taking complex concepts and making them understandable to all.

After his talk, I still remember him saying to me, "Can we get five minutes by ourselves to talk?" Our conversation lasted over fifteen minutes, just the two of us. I was moved by his warmth and attentiveness. He was not rushed or distracted—he was present. And as we wrapped up our conversation, he handed me his card and said, "If you ever need to talk, just call." That kind of humble openness left a lasting impression.

Besides asking if I know our new Holy Father, the other most common question I have received is: "What kind of pope do you think he will be?" That answer will unfold in the years to come. However, after greeting the world with the words Peace be with you, he has continued to preach about the absolute importance of cultivating a personal relationship with Jesus. While emphasizing the need for justice and peace for all people, he has also insisted that without faith, life lacks meaning.

During his inauguration Mass, Pope Leo XIV offered a powerful homily centered on unity, love, and humble service. He said, "I come to you as a brother, who desires to be the servant of your faith and your joy, walking with you on the path of God's love, for he wants us all to be united in one family." He urged the Church to be a "small leaven of unity" in a divided world, calling us to walk together as instruments of healing, hope, and reconciliation—to foster dialogue within the Church and beyond.

So far, it seems that Pope Leo XIV—formed by the Augustinian tradition and shaped by his missionary experiences—strongly desires to be a bridge-builder, encouraging all of us to tear down walls of division and live as one body in Christ.

On one last lighter, yet poignant note—even though he grew up a Sox fan and I am a Cubs fan—it's a joy to remember that we both play on the same team: working together for Christ and for the Church!

So, giving thanks to God for our new Holy Father, please join me in prayer—asking the Holy Spirit to guide, protect, and strengthen Pope Leo XIV.

Habemus papam! And may God bless him always.

PORTA SANCTA

The Holy Door is the most powerful sign of the Jubilee. To pass through it expresses the decision to follow and be guided by Jesus, who is the Good Shepherd. As it states in St. John's gospel (10:9): "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

Each of the panels of the Porta Sancta (Holy Door) portrays a scene of man's sin and his redemption through God's mercy —

Panel Number Five

The fifth panel of the Holy Door (Porta Sancta) depicts the baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist. It features an angel present holding Jesus's robe, and the Holy Spirit present as John pours the water of the head of Jesus. The panel is titled: "TU VENIS AD ME?" which in English means "You Come to Me?" quoting John when Jesus appears. It marks the beginning of Jesus's public ministry, and the beginning of our salvation.

Panel 5 -

TU VENIS AD ME
(You Come to Me?)

Panel Number Six

The sixth panel of the Holy Door (Porta Sancta) shows a shepherd precariously reaching down to rescue a lost lamb that is trapped on a ledge below a cliff. At the top of the cliff can be seen a dog and a small flock of sheep.

The panel is titled: "SALVARE QUOD PERIERAT" which in English means "To Save What Had Been Lost." It represents Jesus as he starts to spread the good news of the Gospel to the children of Israel, and His efforts to reach those who have wandered away from the faith.

As a designated pilgrimage church, everyone who makes a pilgrimage to our church during the Jubilee Year 2025, and fulfills the conditions for a plenary indulgence can receive an indulgence for oneself or for someone who died.

What is a Plenary Indulgence?

A significant feature of the Jubilee year is the granting of a plenary indulgence – which is the complete removal of the effects of sin that remain in us even after we're forgiven.

These conditions need to be met for a plenary indulgence:

- Have complete detachment from sin in your life
- Pray for the intentions of Pope Francis
- Make a Sacramental Confession and be in the state of grace
- Receive Holy Communion

After these four conditions are met, a plenary indulgence can be obtained by visiting a pilgrimage site.

PILGRIMS OF HOPE 2025 JUBILEE YEAR OF PRAYER

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

PRINT & DIGITAL AD SPACES

The Support of Your Business is Greatly Appreciated

Tim Brinckerhoff from LPi, our bulletin printer, is currently securing new ads for our parish bulletin. It is the support of the business community that helps our church thrive. Please consider purchasing a print and/or digital ad as your participation makes our bulletin successful, and you attract customers!

Church bulletin advertising is a cost-effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for your local community; in turn, parishioners will support you!

Digital advertising allows your business to be front and center to anyone who visits a church profile page on ParishesOnline.com — that's approximately 500,000 page views per month!
