FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners:

As we celebrate the First Sunday of Lent, I hope you are finding time to pray and spend time with Jesus.

As a reminder, our parish has many Lenten activities planned, including the Shroud of Turin Exhibit currently on display in Margaret Woods Hall, Stations of the Cross every Friday, a Lenten Parish Mission next week, and a Lenten Reflection with Fr. Sunny Castillo in March, to name a few.

I hope that you can find time to participate in some if not all of these Lenten opportunities.

Remember, God loves you and I love you!

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

Pastor, St. Peter the Apostle Parish

DO YOU WANT TO FAST THIS LENT?

Here are a few tips from Pope Francis:

Fast from hurting words and say kind words.
 Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.
 Fast from anger and be filled with patience.
 Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.
 Fast from worried and have trust in God.
 Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
 Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
 Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy.
 Fast from selfishness and be compassionate.
 Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
 Fast from words and be silent and listen.

St. Peter the Apostle Parish offers the following spiritual and social opportunities during Lent.

We hope you will join us on our Lenten Journey.

Presented by Jim Anderson, a former Episcopal Priest, now a Catholic Convert

Jim Anderson was born in Chicago and raised in Lombard as a practicing Protestant. He met and married a young Catholic woman from the Southwest side of Chicago in the early 80s. Her example of devotion was a major life influence. Eventually, Jim attended seminary and was ordained as an Episcopal priest in the late 80s.

After five years serving in that ministry, Jim felt an irresistible pull to change and join the Catholic Church, which he did in the summer of 1994. Since then, he has been active as a teacher, lector, speaker and OCIA sponsor. Jim has also spent over a decade in Catholic developmental and chaplaincy. He and his wife Bernie live in Lemont and are delighted to be grandparents to four grandchildren, ages one to six.

LENTEN GUIDELINES

- Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
- All from the age of 18 years up to the beginning of their 60th year are bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
- On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
- Lent is the principal season of penance in the Church year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations).
- All Catholics are encouraged to support generously the charitable works of the whole Church, pray and perform works of charity and mercy.
- Those who are sick, pregnant, or nursing, or whose health would adversely be affected by fasting or abstinence, should not consider themselves bound by these norms.
- To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.

REFLECTION - GOSPEL READING

Mark 1:12-15

Jesus is tempted in the desert by Satan.

Background on the Gospel Reading

On the first Sunday of Lent, the Gospel reading in each Lectionary cycle is about Jesus' temptation in the desert. This event in the life of Jesus is reported in each of the Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke—but it is not found in John's Gospel. This year we read Mark's account of this event.

Compared to the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, the details throughout Mark's narrative are sparse. This is evident in Mark's account of Jesus' temptation in the desert. Mark tells us only that Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and that for 40 days he was tempted by Satan. The Gospels of Matthew and Luke explain that Jesus fasted while in the desert, that Satan presented him with three temptations, and that Jesus refused each one, quoting Scripture. Only the Gospels of Matthew and Mark report that angels ministered to Jesus at the end of his time in the desert.

In each of the Synoptic Gospels, the temptation of Jesus follows his baptism by John the Baptist. In Mark's Gospel, we are told that Jesus went into the desert immediately after his baptism, led by the Spirit. Jesus' public ministry in Galilee begins after his temptation in the desert. Mark's Gospel makes a connection between the arrest of John the Baptist and the beginning of Jesus' ministry. Jesus' preaching about the Kingdom of God is in continuity with the preaching of John the Baptist, but it is also something new. As Jesus announces it, the Kingdom of God is beginning; the time of the fulfillment of God's promises is here.

The fact that Jesus spent 40 days in the desert is significant. This recalls the 40 years that the Israelites wandered in the desert after being led from slavery in Egypt. The prophet Elijah also journeyed in the desert for 40 days and nights, making his way to Horeb, the mountain of God, where he was also attended to by an angel of the Lord. Remembering the significance of these events, we also set aside 40 days for the season of Lent.

In Mark's Gospel, the desert marks beginning of Jesus' battle with Satan; the ultimate test will be in Jesus' final hours on the cross. In a similar way, our Lenten observances are only a beginning, a preparation for and a reinforcement of our ongoing struggle to resist the temptations we face in our lives. During Lent, we are led by the Holy Spirit to remember the vows of Baptism in which we promised to reject sin and to follow Jesus. Just as Jesus was ministered to by the angels, God also supports us in our struggle against sin and temptation. We succeed because Jesus conquered sin once and for all in his saving death on the cross.
