PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners:

Over the last 3 weeks, we have been focusing on the main focal points of the Pastoral Letter, MAKE: Conversion and Confession; Communion and Commission; and, Prayer – the center of everything we do as disciples of Christ.

These are the tools that help us to grow in our relationship with Jesus and to be his disciples.

In further reflecting on the words given us in MAKE, “Now, the time has come for us to make disciples. Yet, we cannot make disciples unless we first become true disciples.”

Therefore, together, let us open our hearts and our lives:

- To MAKE time for prayer.
- To MAKE space for God’s abundant mercy and grace.
- To MAKE our worldview reflect the truth of the Gospel.
- To MAKE it to Mass every Sunday, even on vacation or in the summer.
- To MAKE room for building and belonging to a parish community.
- To MAKE the love of Christ visible in our everyday actions.
- To MAKE Jesus and the Eucharist the center of our spiritual lives.
- To MAKE the salvation of souls the reason behind all we do.

And this mission is not for a distant future. It begins today in these ways. We MAKE disciples when...

- We MAKE disciples when we share our faith with a family member, friend, neighbor, coworker, or even a stranger.
- We MAKE disciples when we invite someone to Mass and when we speak of our love for the Eucharist, for Mary, and for the saints.
- We MAKE disciples when we teach our children to pray, comfort a neighbor in need, or serve without expecting anything in return.
- We MAKE disciples when we forgive, just as God mercifully forgives us.
- We MAKE disciples when we listen with compassion and witness to the truth with courage and humility.
- We MAKE disciples when we hand on the faith by sending the next generations to our Catholic schools and religious education programs.
- We MAKE disciples when we respect life from conception to a natural death.
- We MAKE disciples when we work for justice, peace, and the dignity of every person.
- We MAKE disciples when we care for God’s creation.
- We MAKE disciples when we feed the poor and accompany those who suffer and are marginalized.
- We MAKE disciples when others find our joy, faith, and hope to be contagious.
- We MAKE disciples by what we say, by what we do, and by how we live as sons and daughters of God

If you haven’t yet had a chance to read Archbishop Hick’s Pastoral Letter – which he shared with the people of the Diocese of Joliet prior to his assignment as Archbishop of New York, I encourage you to MAKE time to do so.

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

The purpose of this ministry is serving the Table of the Lord, assisting the priest in the celebration of the Eucharist as well as other sacraments or liturgical activities.

Altar serving is putting your faith in action while learning more about it!

Life is the Teacher: I am the Student

October 30-November 1

*Silent Recovery
Weekend Retreat for Men*

As we watch how our Higher Power manifests in creation, we witness that Life is the Teacher. As our lives unfold before us, sometimes we wonder “why is this happening to me?” How do we learn to interpret the happenings in our day with the intention to “read our spiritual mail?” We need to see it and feel it, rather than push the lesson away, because the lesson holds the answer for change. This weekend will focus on embracing that shift in perception, to realize that it’s all a gift, if we’re willing to be students.

Retreat Leader: Roger Bruner

Speaker who uses humor and multiple disciplines to produce insightful and thoughtful presentations; leads workshops and study groups; trained spiritual director.
