PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear parishioners,

Next Sunday we will celebrate Palm Sunday, the triumphant entry of our Lord Jesus into Jerusalem before his passionate death on the cross. So, how are we doing with our Lenten promises and resolutions? I pray that you are growing closer to the Lord.

I will continue to pray for you over the next two weeks and please keep me in your prayers, especially during Holy Week. I encourage you to participate in the Holy Week services.

Please welcome Carol Schubert, our new Director of Evangelization, as she introduces herself this weekend and shares plans for parish faith formation opportunities. One of my spiritual goals for our parish is to help parishioners grow in knowledge of their faith and deepen their relationship with God. Consider participating in her upcoming program based on the book The Three Ordinary Voices of God by Matthew Kelly

Lastly, the Helping Hands Bin is now available for donations. See the article below or contact Deacon Fred with any questions.

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

Pastor, St. Peter the Apostle Parish

FR. TUAN, PASTOR

HELPING HANDS CLOTHING & TEXTILE COLLECTION

The Helping Hands collection bin has been installed on our parish property — it is located at the north end of the west side of our parking lot. Operated by Helping Hands, the bin is for clothing and textile recycling. Wearable clothing will be cleaned, sorted and given a new life for those in need. Worn-out clothing and other fabrics/textiles will be separated out, bundled and sold to manufacturers who use textile fibers in making other products and materials.

Helping Hands will pay our parish based on the volume of materials collected. All money received will be doated to the Itasca Walk-In ministries to support their efforts in caring for those in need.

Please only donate clean materials. This can include clothes, sheets, blankets, towels, unwanted fabric, quilts, bedspreads and any other fabric materials. Clean shoes are also accepted, regardless of condition. Your contributions support corporal works of mercy; specifically clothing the naked, feeding the hungry and giving drink to the thirsty.

So, in the future, don't throw away fabrics. Clean them and turn them in. You will be helping others in a wide number of ways.

For more information, contact Deacon Fred or visit www.clothingbinusa.com

MUSIC MINISTRY

Many years ago, circumstances beyond our control landed my family in very difficult times. Loss of health and income resulted in the sale of a house we loved and a cross-continent move with four children. Our first night in a motel, our youngest child, four years old, was softly crying after we tucked her into bed. When asked what was wrong, she whispered, "We have no home."

For two months we lived with another family, fully aware of how inconvenienced they were to put us up while we house hunted. Friction developed between the children — theirs resentful of giving up space for strangers, and ours feeling bullied, inferior, lost.

Our entire family was hurting. Leaving extended family and friends was more difficult than any of us anticipated. During this time, our 12-year-old son declared "I will never cry again." But for me, the tears wouldn't stop. I became resentful. Where was God? I stopped praying. Singing? Forget it. The words would clog my throat and tears would silently stream down my face as our new Assembly sang:

Change my heart, oh God. Make it ever new.

Change my heart, oh God. May I be like You.

You are the Potter, I am the clay,

Mold me and make me, this is what I pray.

But I couldn't pray. The words just wouldn't come. Slowly, as my heart hardened, and I no longer wanted to pray. I allowed life to wear me down and the prayer, the song, were gone.

My perceptive older sister saw what was happening and gently said, "You need to start praying, Robbie. This has nothing to do with feelings. You just need to start."

I didn't appreciate her advice at the time, but shortly after, I muttered a few words in the direction of the Almighty. And then croaked out a few notes instead of standing in defiant silence. Gradually, the tears of self-pity turned into tears of repentance, and as prayer started to melt my heart of stone, the music gradually returned.

Today, I remember not just the words of my sister, but also the enveloping sound of parishioners around me singing in full voice, at a time when I couldn't. I pray we can always band together to sing that encouragement for others.

Best regards,

Roberta Moroz

Parish Music Director

Blessing of Easter Baskets and Foods

In many places the blessing of special Easter food takes place on Holy Saturday. Decorated baskets may contain lamb meat (which of course signifies Jesus, the Lamb of God), boiled eggs, dyed and plain, Pascha (a special Easter bread), and other foods, is taken to the church in the afternoon where the priest blesses it. The food is then taken home and eaten for breakfast on Easter Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

In particular, among the Polish people, the same custom is practiced, but the main foods blessed are an egg which is broken and shared by all on Easter Sunday morning, and a lamb molded of butter or pastry. This butter-lamb and blessed Easter egg have a place of honor on the festive Easter table.

Easter Baskets and Foods blessing will be take place in the Church at 10:00 am on Holy Saturday.

PILGRIMS OF HOPE 2025 JUBILEE YEAR OF PRAYER

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

Catholic Ministries
Annual Appeal
Diocese of Joliet

Open your heart to God's Goodness

The 2025 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal has begun!

As the Diocese of Joliet launches the 2025 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we are humbly asking all parishioners to pledge their support for this important effort, as together we can make a profound difference.

This year's CMAA theme is Open Your Heart to God's Goodness. Through our support, we ensure that the mission and ministries of Christ's Church are available to everyone. Together, we can help provide safe shelter for the homeless, feed the physical and social needs of those who are hungry, inspire those discerning a life of vocation, and aid in the education of our next generation of Catholics. Our parish could not accomplish all of this on its own. As a diocese working together, we can do so much more. Our parish goal for the 2025 CMAA is $62,100, and 70% of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us and used fruitfully within our own parish. Please review the materials you receive in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal. If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office. Thank you!

Church bulletin advertising is a cost-effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for your local community; in turn, parishioners will support you!

Digital advertising allows your business to be front and center to anyone who visits a church profile page on ParishesOnline.com — that's approximately 500,000 page views per month!
