Overview of Parish Projects (2023-2024)

Father Tuan and the Finance Council believe it is important to share, not just at the end of the year, but during the year the Parish finances. Being open and transparent regarding the use of the funds, which your generosity continues to provide each week, is a priority for Father Tuan and the Finance Council. Thanks to your generosity, the financial health of the parish is particularly good.

We continue to pay down our diocesan loan for the construction of the Church, meeting hall, and parish offices. Our last mortgage payment to the Diocese will be in April of this year, eight years earlier than planned, and we have no other loans outstanding.

During 2023 we made several long overdue capital improvements and repairs to the school, convent, rectory, and the church:

- The school, which is used for Religious Education (RE) and other meetings/organizations, required tuck pointing, new urinals in the boy's bathrooms and new TV monitors and associated technology upgrades in the classrooms. The cost totaled $29,800.
- The old parish center (convent) required extensive tuck pointing and chimney repairs and concrete work for a total cost of $22,000.
- The Church received upgraded technology in both the church and narthex, a new lawn tractor was purchased to replace a 20-plus-year-old unit, Automatic External Defibrillators (AEDs) were added, and acoustic panels on the South wall were installed for a total cost of $40,000.

We have been able to avoid tens of thousands of dollars of additional expenses because of the generous volunteers who donate their time to maintain our buildings and grounds.

During 2024 we have continued to improve our parish campus:

- The school will require HVAC repairs, window repairs and security upgrades with additional cameras. Costs are expected to total $27,000.
- The old parish center (convent) will need HVAC repairs and upgraded security cameras with an estimated total of $10,000.
- The Church requires siding repairs due to bird damage, additional tech upgrades including cameras, additional acoustic panels, and a Donor Recognition Tree to acknowledge all who donated to make our new church a reality.

Your generosity also supports many other works of charity, including but not limited to Transitional Housing, the Itasca Food Pantry and Walk in Ministry.

The Finance Council and Fr. Tuan meet every month and review in-depth the financial condition of the Parish including prioritizing the major projects and associated expenses. We want to assure you that we monitor the church finances very closely and will continue to be careful stewards of your financial generosity.

Sincerely,

The Man of the Shroud

EXHIBIT

St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church | Itasca, Illinois

"One of the most perplexing enigmas of modern times"
—National Geographic

"A distinguished relic linked to the mystery of our redemption."
—Blessed John Paul II

"An icon written with the blood of a whipped man, crowned with thorns, crucified and pierced on his right side."
—Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

This traveling exhibit is coming to St. Peter the Apostle and will be on display on beginning Wednesday, February 14 (Ash Wednesday), through Sunday February 18.

The Shroud of Turin has long been venerated by the faithful and is believed by many to be the burial cloth of Jesus of Nazareth. The Shroud is one of the most scientifically studied religious icons in history. As science has progressed, so has the speculation on how the image of the crucified man of the Shroud was made.

After decades of exhaustive and medical, historical and scientific research, the Center for the Study of the Passion of the Christ and the Holy Shroud has developed a moving and informative mobile exhibit on the Shroud of Turin. The centerpiece is a full length canvas replica of the Shroud made by the Shroud of Turin Education and Research Association, Inc. In addition, the mobile exhibit contains a large crucified corpus showing the wounds of Christ corresponding to the passion narrative in the Gospel accounts and the wounds shown on the Shroud. The exhibit contains over 31 pop-up display banners detailing the history and science of the Shroud.

Saint Joseph's Table

PLANNING MEETING:

February 15 at 7:00 pm

Margaret Woods Hall

On Sunday, March 17, the parish will be hosting its annual St. Joseph's Table following the 11:30 am Mass.

Generosity marks this day, as it did the character of Joseph himself. All parishioners are invited to participate in this wonderful and blessed event, which helps support the parish's many outreach ministries, such as Transitional Housing, Itasca Food Pantry and Walk-in Ministry.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED!!

If you would like to help plan the event, please attend the meeting on Thursday, February 15, at 7:00 pm in Margaret Woods Hall.

Transitional Housing Ministry

Great news... Thanks to the Transitional Housing Ministry and the support of St. Peter's parishioners, the current family is graduating out of the program.

With this news, St. Peter's Transitional Housing Ministry will be preparing to assist a new family and is in need of 2-4 mentor volunteers to help the next family that we sponsor.

Mentors are the primary contact in the client family's service team. This team is made up of the client family, volunteer mentors and professional case manager. Mentors meet with the family to help them set goals, budget, and provide the support they need to be successful.

A mentor training session is scheduled for March 9.

If interested in learning more, please contact Adam Stephan — 847-715-8326 or adam.stephan@gmail.com.

REFLECTION - GOSPEL READING

Mark 1:21-28

Jesus heals a man with an unclean spirit and his fame spreads throughout Galilee.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel continues our reading from Mark and describes what some believe was likely to have been a typical day in Jesus' ministry. Jesus and the disciples that chose to follow him in last week's Gospel arrive at Capernaum, a small village on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus teaches in the synagogue on the Sabbath. Mark reports that the people respond to Jesus' teaching with astonishment, noting Jesus' authority and contrasting it with the scribes'. Early in Mark's Gospel we already find evidence of the tension that will manifest itself fully in Jerusalem.

After Jesus' preaching, an even more astonishing thing happens. A man possessed with an unclean spirit calls out to Jesus. As we see in this example and throughout Mark's Gospel, the spirits and demons seem to know Jesus and are often fearful of him. In fact, they seem to understand Jesus' identity better than his disciples. As we will read again and again in Mark's Gospel, Jesus orders the spirit to be quiet and drives the unclean spirit out of the man. Jesus' ability to heal those possessed by demons is an indication of his power over evil.

In the prescientific age of Jesus' time, all illnesses were understood to be manifestations of evil and sinfulness. Our modern understanding of illness is very different. Possession by unclean spirits may have been a way to describe what we might call mental illness today. It may have even been a way of describing certain kinds of physical conditions. There is evidence that there were many kinds of exorcists and healers in first-century Palestine. Jesus appears to be like these healers, but he heals with unique authority and connects his healing activities with the words of his preaching.

We are missing the point that Mark is trying to make in this Gospel, however, if we try to explain away the healing work of Jesus. The crowds see in Jesus' cure of the possessed man further affirmation of his authority. Jesus' power to heal gives greater credence to his teaching. Jesus impresses the crowds through his words, which are manifested with power in his deeds. Mark's Gospel tells us that because of the authority with which he healed, Jesus' fame spread throughout all of Galilee.

The opening report for the 2024 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) in today's bulletin reflects how we, as Christians, are called to serve those in need For the Glory of God.

Through the CMAA, we show generosity toward the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many ministries the CMAA supports, that touch our own lives and the lives of our fellow parishioners. Ministries that include vocations, Catholic education, and faith formation.

Our parish's goal for the 2024 CMAA is $57,800.00. The diocese will return 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal to us, to be used fruitfully within our own parish. Please review the materials you received in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

thank you
for your generous support!
