Dear Parishioners:

As we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent, I hope you are finding time to reflect on the sacrifice Jesus made on our behalf and are offering yourself to God through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

As a reminder, the parish has recently subscribed to an online streaming program called FORMED. March 10, 2024 | 6:00 pm

St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church | Itasca, Illinois

On their way to Emmaus, two disciples walk, not knowing who was walking with them, until the stranger broke bread with them, and their eyes were opened and saw that it was Jesus who was with them all along!

Christians of today need to reconnect to that moment when they finally saw God in their lives, the time when they finally witness that Jesus is indeed with us on the road of life. He is with us in the Holy Eucharist!

What's your story? Fr. Sunny Castillo, pastor of Mary Queen of Heaven, Elmhurst, will share his thoughts and stories about finding Jesus in the Eucharistic Feast as part of our Lenten Mission experience.

Come and be inspired, be compelled, and fall in love with Jesus our Eucharist!

REFLECTION - GOSPEL READING

John 3:14-21

Jesus tells Nicodemus that the Son of Man will be raised up so that those who believe in him will have eternal life.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The fourth Sunday of Lent is sometimes called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means “rejoice.” Traditionally, Sundays are named after the first word of the liturgy’s opening antiphon. On this Sunday, the antiphon is taken from the book of the prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 66:10-11). Even as we observe our Lenten sacrifices, we rejoice in anticipation of the joy that will be ours at Easter.

Today’s Gospel reading is taken from John’s Gospel. It consists of two parts. The first part is the final sentence of Jesus’ reply to Nicodemus, the Pharisee who approached Jesus at night. Nicodemus acknowledged Jesus as someone who had come from God and seemed to want to be a follower of Jesus. Jesus greeted Nicodemus with the observation that one must be born from above to see the Kingdom of God. The dialogue between Jesus and Nicodemus that followed was about the meaning of this phrase. Nicodemus misunderstood Jesus at every point, but there was no animosity in the questions he posed to Jesus.

In the part of the conversation with Nicodemus in today’s Gospel, Jesus referred to an incident reported in the Old Testament. When the Israelites grumbled against the Lord during their sojourn in the desert, God sent venomous serpents to punish them for their complaints. The Israelites repented and asked Moses to pray for them. The Lord heard Moses’ prayer and instructed him to make a bronze serpent and mount it on a pole. All who had been bitten by a serpent and then looked upon the bronze serpent were cured. By recalling this story, Jesus alludes to the salvation that would be accomplished through his death and Resurrection.

The second part of today’s Gospel is a theological reflection on Jesus’ words to Nicodemus. The Gospel of John is known for this kind of reflection offered within the narrative. The words of the Evangelist are in continuity with the words of the prologue to John’s Gospel. In these reflections, John elaborates on a number of themes that are found in his Gospel: light and darkness, belief and unbelief, good and evil, salvation and condemnation.

In John’s reflection, we find an observation about human sinfulness. Jesus is the light that has come into the world, but people preferred the darkness. We wish to keep our sins hidden, even from God. Jesus has come into the world to reveal our sins so that they may be forgiven. This is the Good News; it is the reason for our rejoicing in this season of Lent and throughout our lives.
