ADVENT

HOPE. LOVE. JOY. PEACE.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners:

Advent means "coming" and the Season of Advent is a time to prepare for Christ's coming. Jesus tells us to watch for his coming; to be alert. In order to watch and be alert, we have to stay focused – focused on Jesus as our savior and redeemer.

Staying focused in this way implies taking time to reflect, to slow down; and, at the same time, our culture is telling us to hurry up, to get our shopping done, our house decorated, our Christmas cards sent, attend a party here and there. It can really raise a person's anxiety level to hear these opposing messages: slow down; hurry up. We are constantly torn in both directions: slow down; hurry up!

- Here are a few suggestions to help us to be prepared for Christmas – the coming of Jesus Christ:
- Have a daily conversation with God or with Jesus.
- Prayerfully read the Scriptures.
- Look over your day and ask yourself what went well and what you are grateful for; and, what didn't go well and why.
- Quiet your mind and say nothing; give God a chance to say something to you.
- Pray the Rosary.
- Go to Confession, attend Adoration, and of course go to Mass – maybe daily if possible.

Whatever ways you choose to prepare will help you to stay more peaceful, reduce stress, and lower your blood pressure. Following some or all of these suggestions will help you to stay focused on what's important in life and what is not so important.

May you have a blessed Advent.

Remember, God loves you and I love you!

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

REFLECTION - GOSPEL READING

Mark 13:33-37

Jesus warns his disciples to be watchful so that they will be ready when the Son of Man comes.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we begin the season of Advent, which marks the start of a new liturgical year for the Church. The readings for Sunday Mass are arranged on a three-year cycle. Each year features a different Gospel—Matthew, Mark, or Luke. Readings from the Gospel of John are interspersed throughout all three years. With this year's first Sunday of Advent, we begin Cycle B of the Lectionary, which focuses our attention on the Gospel of Mark. This week and next week, our readings from Mark's Gospel present two important Advent themes: the Lord's return at the end of time and John the Baptist's preparation for Jesus.

Today's Gospel is taken from the end of Mark's Gospel, the chapter that immediately precedes Mark's account of Jesus' Passion. Having been questioned repeatedly by the scribes and the Pharisees, Jesus is now questioned by his disciples—Peter, James, John, and Andrew—who want details about his prediction of the destruction of the Temple. Jesus answers with many warnings about the difficulties that the disciples will face.

Today's passage comes at the conclusion of Jesus' warnings to his disciples. Jesus emphasizes the need for watchfulness. The Son of Man will come without warning; only the Father knows the exact hour. The disciples must not be caught unprepared when this time comes.

Scholars believe that Mark's Gospel was written around the time of the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in A.D. 70. Mark's audience consisted of Christians who were living in difficult social and political times, times of conflict. They were likely beginning to face persecution as followers of Jesus. In this difficult time, it helped to recall that Jesus had foretold of such difficulties. Early Christian communities took courage from Jesus' warning to remain alert and watchful, and they found in his words a way to persevere through suffering.

Today's Gospel reminds us that Advent is about more than our preparation for the Church's celebration of Christ's birth at Christmas. Advent is also about preparing ourselves for Christ's return in glory at the end of time. Like the disciples and the faithful in Mark's community, we must also stay alert and watchful. Our faithfulness to God, through the good times as well as the difficult times, shows us to be ready for the coming of the Son of Man.
